If the representative is an accountant, tax agent, financial adviser, friend or family member, that is not a UK solicitor or barrister or advocate (in Scotland), then the appellant must sign this form or send in a completed T239 authorisation form signed by the appellant.

You can find the form online at link: www.gov.uk/government/publications/form-t239-authorise-a-representative

Only a legal representative can appeal to the tribunal as the appellant’s representative without authorisation. A legal representative is someone authorised under the Legal Services Act 2007 to conduct litigation or exercise a right of audience.

We need to know what your appeal is about as the law about how and when you can appeal is different for different types of tax.

Note 3.2: For direct tax or information notices, you must appeal to HMRC before you can appeal to the tribunal.

If HMRC rejected your appeal for being late, you can apply to the tribunal to be allowed to make a late appeal to HMRC.

4.3 Did HMRC allow you to defer paying because of financial hardship?

Yes. Go to Section 5

Awaiting decision. Go to Section 5

No. Go to question 4.4

4.4 Why will paying the tax under dispute cause you financial hardship?

I want to apply to HMRC to consider my hardship application because:

Note for Section 4

For indirect taxes, you must normally pay any amount HMRC claim you owe before you appeal.

However, you may be excused for reasons of financial hardship.

You do not have to pay a penalty or surcharge before you can appeal.

If payment of the tax will cause financial hardship, you must ask HMRC if you can defer paying before your appeal is allowed to proceed.

If HMRC doesn't allow you to defer, fill in question 4.4 (or give reasons in a separate document). The judge will decide whether your appeal can go ahead without paying the amount first.

If you are awaiting a decision, and HMRC later refuse, you may apply to the tribunal to consider your case for financial hardship at that point.

Section 5 – Timing of appeal

- 5.1 If your appeal is late, or you think it will not reach the tribunal in time, explain why and send any supporting evidence for your reasons along with this form.

Note for Section 5

The notice of appeal must be received by the tribunal within 30 days from the date of the original decision or review conclusion letter (or expiry of the 45-day period for review if you didn't receive a review conclusion letter).

The time runs from the date on the decision and not from the date you received it.

You must explain the reasons why you didn't send your notice of appeal within the given time. The tribunal won't accept your appeal unless you do so.

The judge will consider your reasons and any response from HMRC.

There may be a hearing to decide if your appeal can go ahead. If you are not allowed to appeal late, you will be told why.

You can enclose a separate document if you need more space to write.

Section 6 – Grounds for appeal

6.1 Give reasons for each decision you dispute

Note for Section 6

Clearly explain why you are appealing, giving reasons for each decision you dispute. The judge will want to hear things from your side.

You can write reasons here or enclose a separate document if you need more space.

6.2 Briefly say what outcome you would like.

Note 6.2: Clearly explain the result you want in 2-3 sentences.

For example, if you have received a ruling you disagree with you should tell us what you think the correct ruling should have been.

Section 7 – Hearing

7.1 Will you need any support at the hearing, such as wheelchair access or a hearing loop?

Tell us what support you need and why you need it.

Note 7.1: You can ask for support at a hearing, for example:

- access and mobility support (wheelchair)
- support to see or hear what is happening at the hearing
- documents in alternative formats, colours or fonts

Section 8 – Statement of truth

I believe that the facts stated in this form and any continuation sheets are true.

I authorise the representative for all purposes in these proceedings. I understand that the tribunal will communicate only with my duly appointed representative.

The appellant believes that the facts stated in this form and any continuation sheets are true.
